

Please don't take K-Love off the air as part of this Localism campaign. There is not enough family-friendly radio as it is, and the deletion or displacement of this quality programming would be sorely missed! I hope that you will do more to encourage this type of programming, and certainly do not enact any measures which would lessen the reach of Christian radio to those who value it. Thank you.